1 SECTION 5. Sections 154.181(b), (c), and (e), Family Code,
2 are amended to read as follows:

3 (b) Before a hearing on temporary orders or a final order,
4 if no hearing on temporary orders is held, the court shall require 5 the parties to the proceedings to disclose in a pleading or other 6 statement:

7 (1) if private health insurance is in effect for the 8 child, the identity of the insurance company providing the 9 coverage, the policy number, which parent is responsible for 10 payment of any insurance premium for the coverage, whether the 11 coverage is provided through a parent's employment, and the cost of 12 the premium; or

13 (2) if private health insurance is not in effect for 14 the child, whether:

15 (A) the child is receiving medical assistance
16 under Chapter 32, Human Resources Code;

17 (B) the child is receiving health benefits
18 coverage under the state child health plan under Chapter 62, Health 19 and Safety Code, and the cost of any premium; and 20 (C) either parent has access to private health

21 insurance at reasonable cost to the obligor [~~that parent~~].

22 (c) In rendering temporary orders, the court shall, except 23 for good cause shown, order that any health insurance coverage in 24 effect for the child continue in effect pending the rendition of a 25 final order, except that the court may not require the continuation 26 of any health insurance that is not available to the parent at 27 reasonable cost to the obligor. If there is no health insurance

1 coverage in effect for the child or if the insurance in effect is 2 not available at a reasonable cost to the obligor, the court shall, 3 except for good cause shown, order health care coverage for the 4 child as provided under Section 154.182.

5 (e) In this section, "reasonable cost" means the cost of 6 health insurance coverage for a child that does not exceed nine
7 percent of the obligor's [~~responsible parent's~~] annual resources, 8 as described by Section 154.062(b), if the obligor is responsible 9 under a medical support order for the cost of health insurance
10 coverage for only one child. If the obligor is responsible under a 11 medical support order for the cost of health insurance coverage for 12 more than one child, "reasonable cost" means the total cost of 13 health insurance coverage for all children for which the obligor is 14 responsible under a medical support order that does not exceed nine
15 percent of the obligor's annual resources, as described by Section 16 154.062(b).

17 SECTION 6. Sections 154.182(a), (b), (b-1), (b-2), and (c), 18 Family Code, are amended to read as follows:

19 (a) The court shall consider the cost, accessibility, and 20 quality of health insurance coverage available to the parties and 21 shall give priority to health insurance coverage available through 22 the employment of one of the parties if the coverage is available at 23 a reasonable cost to the obligor.

24 (b) In determining the manner in which health care coverage 25 for the child is to be ordered, the court shall render its order in 26 accordance with the following priorities, unless a party shows good 27 cause why a particular order would not be in the best interest of

1 the child:

2 (1) if health insurance is available for the child
3 through a parent's employment or membership in a union, trade 4 association, or other organization at reasonable cost to the 5 obligor [~~parent~~], the court shall order that parent to include the 6 child in the parent's health insurance;

7 (2) if health insurance is not available for the child
8 under Subdivision (1) but is available to a parent from another
9 source and at a reasonable cost to the obligor, the court may order 10 that parent to provide health insurance for the child; or

11 (3) if health insurance coverage is not available for 12 the child under Subdivision (1) or (2), the court shall order the 13 obligor to pay the obligee, in addition to any amount ordered under 14 the guidelines for child support, an amount, not to exceed the 15 maximum amount that the obligor could be required to pay for health
16 insurance under this subchapter [~~nine percent of the obligor's~~
17 ~~monthly resources~~], as cash medical support for the child.

18 (b-1) If the parent ordered to provide health insurance
19 under Subsection (b)(1) or (2) is the obligee, the court shall order 20 the obligor to pay the obligee, as additional child support, an 21 amount equal to the actual cost of health insurance for the child, 22 but not to exceed a reasonable cost to the obligor. In calculating 23 the actual cost of health insurance for the child, if the obligee
24 has other minor dependents covered under the same health insurance 25 plan, the court shall divide the total cost to the obligee for the 26 insurance by the total number of minor dependents, including the 27 child covered under the plan.

1 (b-2) If the court finds that neither parent has access to 2 private health insurance at a reasonable cost to the obligor, the 3 court shall order the parent awarded the exclusive right to 4 designate the child's primary residence or, to the extent permitted
5 by law, the other parent to apply immediately on behalf of the child 6 for participation in a government medical assistance program or 7 health plan. If the child participates in a government medical 8 assistance program or health plan, the court shall order cash
9 medical support under Subsection (b)(3).

10 (c) In this section:

11 (1) "Accessibility" means the extent to which health 12 insurance coverage for a child provides for the availability of 13 medical care within a reasonable traveling distance and time from 14 the child's primary residence, as determined by the court.

15 (2) "Reasonable~~[, "reasonable]~~ cost" has the meaning
16 assigned by Section 154.181(e).

17 SECTION 7. Section 154.183(c), Family Code, is amended to 18 read as follows:

19 (c) As additional child support, the court shall allocate 20 between the parties, according to their circumstances:

21 (1) [~~7~~] the reasonable and necessary health care
22 expenses, including vision and dental expenses, of the [~~of a~~] child 23 that are not reimbursed by health insurance or are not otherwise
24 covered by the amount of cash medical support ordered under Section 25 154.182(b)(3); and

26 (2) amounts paid by either party as deductibles or 27 copayments in obtaining health care services for the child covered

1 under a health insurance policy.

2 SECTION 8. Section 154.187(c), Family Code, is amended to
3 read as follows:

4 (c) An employer who has received an order or notice under 5 this subchapter shall provide to the sender, by first class mail not 6 later than the 30th day after the date the employer receives the 7 order or notice, a statement that the child:

8 (1) has been enrolled in the employer's [a] health
9 insurance plan or is already enrolled in another health insurance
10 plan in accordance with a previous child support or medical support

14 the reason why coverage or permanent coverage cannot be provided.

16 read as follows:

17 (b) This subchapter does not limit the authority of the 18 court to render or modify a medical support order to provide 19 ~~[containing a provision]~~ for payment of uninsured health expenses, 20 health care costs, or health insurance premiums in a manner
21 consistent ~~[that are in addition to and inconsistent]~~ with this 22 subchapter.

24 read as follows:

25 (b) The court retains jurisdiction to confirm the total
26 amount of child support arrearages and render a cumulative money
27 judgment for past-due child support, as provided by Section

15 credit. The credit under this subsection is equal to the amount of 16 the lump-sum or periodic payment and shall be applied to any child
